June – August 2018

Live Music | Comedy | Entertainment

Experience some of the best names in live music, comedy and entertainment this Summer at Sheffield City Hall...

Spend an up-close and personal evening with Take That's lead singer Gary Barlow, have a giggle with Geordie comic Chris Ramsey as he ventures out of his house again, put the world to rights with Caitlin Moran and pay tribute to some of the World's most inspiring music icons.

Friday 1st June | 7.30pm

Killer Queen

Tickets: £21.50

Venue: Oval Hall

The world's greatest tribute to Queen

Killer Queen have been performing their tribute to Queen's concert since 1993. Their expert musicianship, extraordinary energy and accurate portrayal of the world's greatest live band have rightfully earned Killer Queen the title of Queen tribute royalty.

Thrilling sell-out audiences across the globe from the UK to Moscow and in 2016 their first tour of USA, Killer Queen re-creates the high energy, powerful phenomenon that was Queen live.

Gary Barlow

SOLD OUT

✕ Pre-show Dining Available from £10

Venue: Oval Hall

An evening with one of Britain's most successful song writers and Take That member

Gary Barlow visits Sheffield City Hall as part of a tour that sees him play intimate venues across the UK and Ireland. The last time Gary played a string of venues this size, demand was so high he could have sold certain venues out six times over!

Gary is one of Britain's most successful songwriters, having written 14 Number One singles as well as being a six-time recipient of an Ivor Novello Award. Aside from his achievements with Take That, he has also co-written and produced music for other renowned artists including Dame Shirley Bassey, Sir Elton John and Robbie Williams. Gary's last solo record 'Since I Saw You Last' sold more than 600,000 copies and was the ninth biggest selling album that year.

Neal Morse

Tickets: £19.50

Venue: Memorial Hall

Rare and unique evening with talented singer-songwriter

After an incredibly successful World tour in 2017 supporting his band's most recent epic masterpiece, 'The Similitude of a Dream', Morse is now embarking on a rare, up-close and personal solo acoustic tour spotlighting some of the music behind his new singer-songwriter album, 'Life and Times'. This unique string of intimate performances will reveal even more about the man, his life and music.

Neal's songs and stories reach well beyond the borders of a successful progressive rock career, and will give the audience a special opportunity to really get to know the personal side of an artist who has been trotting around the globe for years as a member of multiple award-winning and chart-topping bands, including Transatlantic and Flying Colors.

Lunchtime Choir

Every Wednesday
Please check dates in advance

Tickets: £5

Book 5 Sessions For £20

This community choir in the city centre is open to everyone, even if you have never sung in a choir before. You don't need to read music, it's all taught by ear and every kind of voice is welcome. Come and sing pop, folk, blues and gospel during your lunch hour and give your mind and body a boost in the beautiful setting of the art deco Ballroom. The sessions are led by Val Regan who has over twenty years experience of creating community choirs.

Dancing in the Ballroom Tea Dances

Admission: £3 Tuesdays and Thursdays,
£3.50 Saturdays

Please check www.sheffieldcityhall.co.uk or call the Box Office on 0114 2 789 789 for monthly dates.

The City Hall's famous Tea Dances have been bringing people together for 85 years. Many of Sheffield's married couples first met on the illuminated dance floor and the city's brave wartime Women of Steel, now immortalised with a statue outside the building, could often be found quickstepping and waltzing around the art deco Ballroom. The tea dances remain as popular as ever, drawing visitors from across South Yorkshire and beyond for a heart-warming and friendly afternoon of ballroom, latin and sequence dance.
